Can Americans name the five freedoms in the First Amendment?

95% were unable to name all 5 freedoms
15% incorrectly named the right to bear arms

More people could name speech than any other freedom

38% Speech, 26% Religion, 22% Press, 15% Assembly, 6% Petition

Source: AEJMC Poll on Public Attitudes Toward the Press conducted for News Engagement Day, Tues., Oct. 6, 2015. For more information: paula.poindexter@austin.utexas.edu newsengagementday.org aejmc.org